TEENS!

Stanwood High School Students Present

Change Theatre

Fun and Life-Changing Workshop for Teenagers!

Facilitated by Paul Figueroa, Peace Enforcement LLC, hosted by SHS Random Acts of Kindness Everyday (R.A.K.E.)

Paul Figueroa, the founder of Peace Enforcement LLC is an expert in violence prevention, conflict resolution, self esteem building and motivation. A 12-year veteran of the King County Sheriff's Department, Paul spent much of his career working with street gangs. Drawing on this experience, Paul re-channeled his efforts, and for the last 11 years has been working to positively impact the lives of people. His Peace Enforcement Self Esteem / Conflict Resolution Curriculum was nominated for KCTS' Golden Apple Award for its use in elementary school violence prevention programs.

Dr. Chap Clark

FOR ADULTS!

Disconnected

Parenting Teens in a MySpace World

Chap's presentation will equip anyone who works with or in the service of adolescents to understand who they are and how they think in today's constantly changing cultural environment.

A well-known practitioner, adolescent and family scholar, author, gifted trainer-teacher and energetic speaker, Chap has served in diverse settings in education, entertainment, business, military, church and other settings. He is a highly acclaimed resource for consulting on adolescence and adolescent development; parenting and family; college and seminary consulting; leadership training seminars; and cultural trends, especially related to popular culture, adolescents and society.

What people are saying:

"...nothing I have read or heard speaks more directly to where we are as a society than the presentation of Chap Clark... this night will prove to be a recipe for only positive things to happen in our community!"

- Perry Watkins, Retired Contractor, Asst Football Coach-SHS, Community Youth volunteer

"It really does 'take a village to raise a child!' Whether you are a parent, grandparent and/or member of 'the village,' Chap Clark's research and resulting powerful message will help any community to more effectively embrace their teens."

- Nancy Nelson, Development Director- Warm Beach Camp, Rotary Member
